1. Opening and Welcome

The Chairperson opened the meeting and welcomed all in attendance to the second day of interviews of candidates nominated to be appointed to the Western Cape Consumer Affairs Tribunal (the Tribunal). The Chairperson noted the apology from Member I Sileku (DA).

The Chairperson reminded Members that the scoresheets would be attached to the Committee's report to the Minister on the recommendations of the candidate to serve on the Tribunal.

There seemed to be a miscommunication between the Department of Economic Development and Tourism, and candidate Mr L Ntloko, where he was unaware of his scheduled interview. The Department and Committee conveyed their apologies to Mr Ntloko. After a brief virtual discussion with Mr Ntloko, it was agreed that his interview would be rescheduled to Monday, 29 January 2024.

The Committee commenced with the interviews.

2. Candidate Interviews

The Committee interviewed all six remaining candidates and held brief discussions about each candidate after each interview.

Once all six interviews and discussions concluded, the Chairperson adjourned the second day of interviews.

The Committee adjourned at 12:30.
