1. Welcome

The Chairperson welcomed all present. The purpose of the meeting was to further discuss the committee programme.

2. Committee Programme

The Committee reviewed its programme and agreed to add the following items:

- i. Oversight visits to the Khayelitsha and Worcester South African Police Service (SAPS) stations.
- ii. Engagement with the SAPS on its directorate responsible for Drug Investigations.
- iii. Engagement with and oversight visits to areas promoting community sports development and participation. These include Mitchells Plain, Gugulethu and Khayelitsha.
- iv. Oversight visits to libraries and province funded museums.

3. Discussion on the entities

The Committee discussed its processes to shortlist candidates for the Western Cape Language Committee and the Western Cape Cultural Commission.

4. Resolutions

- 4.1. The Committee resolved to advertise for the Western Cape Language Committee and the Western Cape Cultural Commission in all three provincial languages, and use other free formats, such as the WCPP and DCAS websites, social media platforms, stakeholder institutions (libraries, museums, cape access centres) for further distribution to call for nominations. The newspapers identified were Die Burger, Rapport, Vukani and the Cape Argus.
- 4.2. The Committee resolved to a deadline for submissions for the WCCC and WCLC prior to the 2024 December closure.

The meeting adjourned at 15h30.
