FURTHER BUSINESS

NOTICE OF MOTIONS (in terms of Standing Rule 147(1))

1. Mr R T Olivier moved: That the House debates the prevalence of drug abuse among learners at Western Cape schools and the efficiency of WCED programmes to prevent drugs and substance abuse among school children after a high number of learners at 53 schools, including primary schools, tested positive for drugs.

2. Mr B D Kivedo moved: That the House condemns in the strongest terms the petrol bombing and vandalising of the historic 130-year-old St Mark's Anglican Church, a place of worship in District Six, by Cosatu members during their march against state capture through Cape Town yesterday.
3. Mr R T Olivier moved: That the House notes and calls for an investigation into the possibility that Shaquill Maarman (15) may have unknowingly suffered brain damage following a brutal beating by bullies at the Strandfontein High School; and calls on the WCED to put measures in place to end school bullying.
4. Ms P Makeleni moved: That the House condemns honourable Premier Zille's refusal to establish a commission of inquiry into the deaths of women and children in the province as she is now pushing for special units to be stationed at institutions of higher learning to collate and analyse available data on the reasons why women and children are killed; and calls for the rejection of this research in favour of establishing a proper commission of inquiry.
5. Ms N D Nkondlo moved: That the House lauds the Department of Trade and Industry's recent announcement that it intends to take black South African industrialists on an outward trade mission to Uganda for a week from 18 to 23 September to assist them to search for a markets for their products and to explore investments opportunities; notes further that our Premier, who spent millions on international trips, did not think of including black industrialists in her delegation; and calls for more similar trips to ensure that black industrialists play a more prominent role in the economy of the country.
6. Mr R D Mackenzie moved: That the House commends the South African Federation of Trade Unions (Saftu) for meeting with and calling for the curtailing of powers of the Minister of Finance Malusi Gigaba regarding the Public Investment Corporation whose funds he intends to pillage for yet another state-owned entity bailout; further notes that when Minister Gigaba was the Minister of Public Enterprises he appointed Gupta-owned businesses and Zuma allies to manage SOEs, such as SAA and PetroSA, that bankrupted the public purse and that he intends to do the very same thing in his new role by wasting money meant for the public servants of our country, such as teachers, nurses, policemen, soldiers and prison wardens, along with their children and grandchildren.
7. Ms N D Nkondlo moved: That the House notes that statistics from Statistics South Africa released recently showed that the country has moved out of recession in the second quarter of the year after the economy expanded an annualised 2,5% in the second quarter of this year; that this marks the end of two quarters of contraction and beats the market expectation of a 2,1% rise in gross domestic product (GDP); that the National Treasury should be congratulated for continuing with sound economic policies and maintaining fiscal discipline; that our national government must be steadfast and resolute despite prophets of doom and not be swayed in advancing the "radical social and economic transformation" that will realise an inclusive and shared economy for all; and we, therefore, look forward to Minister Gigaba's inaugural medium-term budget policy statement in October.
