(b) The station's Crime Intelligence (CI) and the local Crime Information Management and Analysis Centre (CIMAC) work in close collaboration to identify individuals and groups involved in extortion activities in their respective policing precincts. Operational deployments and related activities are informed by the threats and intelligence emerging from this joint analysis. Regular intelligence-driven operations and daily patrols are conducted in identified extortion hotspot areas. In addition, local spaza shops are frequently visited to enhance police visibility.

(2) (a) Arrests - 331

(b) Convictions - 1

(3) (a) Murder, Attempted Murder, Business Robbery, Kidnapping, Intimidation

(b) R10 751 040.00

(4) (a) At present, no verified information or conclusive evidence is available linking extortion cases in the province to organised criminal gangs. Investigative and intelligence structures continue to assess available case information; however, no formal linkage meeting evidentiary requirements has been established to date.

(b) Although the linkage to criminal gangs is ongoing certain extortion groupings are investigated by dedicated provincial detectives.

(5) (a) The SAPS employs an integrated, multi-disciplinary approach involving Visible Policing, Crime Intelligence, and Detective Services. These components work jointly through coordinated operations, information sharing, and targeted investigations to address extortion-related threats across the province.

(b) The multi-disciplinary approach covers the Western Cape Province.

(c) The funding utilised for extortion-related operations is drawn from the existing operational budgets of both Visible Policing and Detective Services. No separate or ring-fenced budget allocation exists for this purpose.

(6) (a) 571

(b) Experienced and dedicated Investigating officers have been assigned to address extortion related cases within the Provincial Detectives.
